

Report on "Constitution Day" on 26th November 2022

26.11.2022

The English Literary club of United Institute of Technology, Periyanaickenpalayam, Coimbatore celebrated the National Constitution Day to commemorate the adoption of Indian Constitution and to promote constitutional values amongst citizens on November 26, 2022 at 2.00 pm in the UEI Seminar Hall. Dr.C.Saravanamoorthy, Vice Principal, Dr.Kannan, Head, Department of Science and Humanities, Dr.D.Gokila, Head, Department of Electronics and Communication Engineering, Mr.Samuel Morris, Assistant Professor of English, Department of Science and Humanities and Staff Coordinator of the English Literary club, Ms.S.K.Subashree, President of the English Literary club took part.

Ms.S.Rini, Assistant Professor of English, Department of Science and Humanities welcomed the gathering and briefed on the "Indian Constitution". The important part of the program was reading the Preamble and taking oath by the students and faculty at 2.30 pm

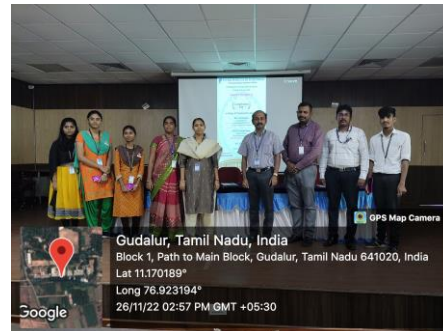

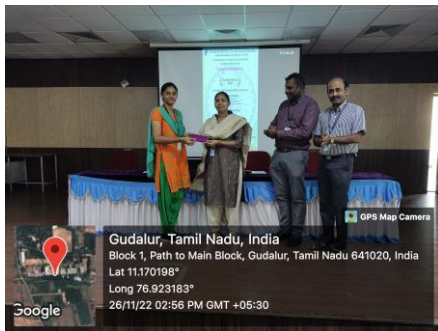

Dr.C.Saravanamoorthy, Vice Principal addressed the gathering.

To spread awareness among the students and to mark the importance of this day, an Elocution competition was conducted, where students participated and spoke about the values and fundamental principles of our constitution.

The winners and runners of Tamil and English elocution competitions were awarded by Dr.Kannan, Head, Department of Science and Humanities and Dr.D.Gokila, Head, Department of Electronics and Communication Engineering.

The event was coordinated by Mr.Samuel Morris, Assistant Professor of English, Department of Science and Humanities and Staff Coordinator of the English Literary club.The program ended with a Vote of thanks by Ms.P.Jeevana, Joint Secretary of English Literature Club.